

Form to exert your privacy rights (candidate Randstad Professionals)

To help you in exerting your privacy rights as a candidate at Randstad Professionals, we have put together a list of the information we need from you in order to handle your request.

Please fill out all requested details in this form and send it with a copy of your identity card by email or registered mail to our privacy department.

My Identity (mandatory to fill in order to process your request):

Last name:

First name:

Address:

Email address:

I add a copy of my identity card to my application form so that Randstad Professionals has sufficient guarantee that this request is made by the right person. This copy will be destroyed when the request is fully processed. Without this copy, my application will not be processed.

I want to exert the following right (tick the appropriate box and complete if necessary)

right to erasure

I no longer wish to make use of the services of Randstad Professionals and request the deletion of my personal data. This will result in the deletion of my candidate file Randstad Professionals, taking into account the applicable retention periods.

I want to have access to the details of my file.

I want the following personal data, which I believe to be inaccurate or incomplete, to be corrected or completed as follows:

-----
-----
-----
-----

I want Randstad Professionals to transfer the following personal details. This is only possible for personal details that I have submitted to Randstad Professionals myself:

-----
-----
-----
-----

in electronic form:

to myself, via the following e-mail address:

or

directly to the following controller:
via the following e-mail address:

I want to object to the following processing of my personal data (this can only be processed based on the legitimate interests of Randstad Professionals or a third party - see privacy statement):

-----
-----
-----
-----

for following reasons related to my specific situation:

-----
-----
-----

I request the restriction of the processing of my personal data for one of the following 4 reasons:

- I have requested the correction of my data and I am waiting for a reply from Randstad Professionals

- the processing of my data is unlawful, but I do not want my data to be deleted; please indicate clearly which processing of your data is involved.

- I want Randstad Professionals to keep my data because this is necessary for a legal claim;

- I have already exercised my right to object, but am still waiting for an answer from Randstad Professionals

Date and signature of the applicant

You can send your fully completed and signed form, together with the copy of your identity card:

- either scanned by e-mail to: privacy@professionals.randstad.be
- either by registered mail to: Randstad Group Belgium nv, to the attention of the privacy department, Acces Building, Keizer Karellaan 586 b.8, 1082 Brussel

Your application will be handled by our privacy department which will inform you within the legal deadline (1 month after receipt of your form) of the result via the email address or postal address provided by you in this form.

Attention: in some cases (e.g. legal obligations, rights of others) you will not be able to or be able to fully exert your rights. You will receive a message about this with the reason why we cannot or can't fully meet your request.